—Little Josephine Leer underwent a slight operation by Dr. Wallingford, of Paris Tuesday, for adnoid. Her father, Ashby Leer had one of his tonsils removed on the same day. Both are doing nicely.

—Mrs. Wm. Hamilton, whose illness has been noticed in several issues of this paper, died Friday morning at 12 o'clock at the age of 66. She was formerly Miss Susan Williams and had always resided near Millersburg. At the age of 16 she was married to Mr. Wm. Hamilton and was the mother of two daughters, Mrs. S. K. Proctor and Mrs. C. E. Cooper. Mrs. Cooper died several years ago leaving one son, Mr. W. H. Cooper, who resides at Carlisle. Mrs. Hamilton was a devoted Christian, having united with the Christian church early in life. For the past two years she has been a confirmed invalid, though not confined to her bed until within the last month. The funeral took place Saturday afternoon at the residence, services by Rev. T. W. Watts, assisted by Prof. C. C. Fisher. Owing to the severity of the weather the remains were placed temporarily in the vault at the cemetery.

—Ice was taken here Monday from three to four inches thick. It continued a good deal of snow.

—Rev. T. W. Watts gave a stereopticon lecture Sunday evening at the Methodist church. Subject, "An Evening in China." It was instructive and enjoyed by all present.

—Miss Lydia Brown received a telegram Saturday afternoon announcing the death of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, of Los Angeles, Cal. The remains will be brought here for burial and will arrive about Friday or Saturday.

—One of the most notable social events in the history of Millersburg was the Senior dance given at the Millersburg Military Institute Thursday evening by the Senior class. This was the first annual Senior dance of the institution, which will be continued and improved on as the years go by.

The dance was given in the spacious drill hall which was artistically decorated in military style, stacked guns, swords, pennants of numerous colleges, bunting and stars and stripes artistically arranged. Saxton & Trost's orchestra furnished the music. Attractive leather covered programs upon the cover of which was the college pennant, were given to the dancers.

About 80 dancers took part and the grand march was led by Capt. F. J. Reiley, of the Institute, and Mrs. Tandy Hughes, of Lexington. Many fancy figures were made including that of '09 the class year. There were twenty-four numbers on the program. About 11 o'clock in the library and dining hall of the main building, a bountiful luncheon was served. Mrs. C. M. Best, who has been ill the greater part of the winter was able to be out and assumed a large part of the management of the affair.

The chaperones were Mrs. Garrett Jefferson, Mrs. Wm. S. Judy, Mrs. R. A. Burton, Mrs. Sanford Allen, Mrs. E. P. Gamble, Mrs. Tandy Hughes and Mrs. Bruce Smith. The out-of-town visitors were Mrs. Lawrence Fitzhugh, Misses Hettie Frazer, Sarah Chenault, Curry Nugent, Catherine Hogarty, Elizabeth McFarland, Anetta Martin, Mary Vimont, Mira Vance, of Chicago, Ill.; Emile Lacey, of Owingsville; Mrs. A. B. Robertson, Misses Latina Wood, Elizabeth Johnson, of Mt. Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. John, Winchester; Renna Crosdale, Henrietta Taylor, Martha Waller, Lucile Morris, Gay Ferguson and Mr. W. V. Ferguson, of Paris. The Senior Class of 1908 is composed of the following: Lindsey Pogue Johns, president; Isaac Cunningham Haley, secretary; Russell des Cognets, Edion Giles Fagan, Thomas Pickett Hunter, William Kenney Ferguson, Thomas Badger Robertson, James William Miller, William Muir Lane, Robert Hume Ferguson and Lancelot John Gamble.

To Be Greatly Improved.

The Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, control of which recently passed into the hands of a new syndicate headed by Edwin Hawley and E. H. Huntington, will be greatly improved. Important connections will be made that will make the road one of the great trunk lines. No changes in the management are contemplated.
